

Kelly Frantz, OD, FAAO, FCOVD completed her optometry degree and residency in pediatrics/binocular vision at the Pennsylvania College of Optometry. She is a Professor at Illinois College of Optometry, specializing in binocular vision. As a Diplomate in Binocular Vision, Perception & Pediatric Optometry in the AAO, she has served as Diplomate Chair and Section Chair. She serves on the leadership team of the Fellowship of Christian Optometrists (a specialty section of the Christian Medical & Dental Associations). In 2013 she received the Skeffington Award from COVD for her contributions to optometric research and publication. She lectures nationally and internationally.